

Mozilla Thunderbird Setup

Open Mozilla Thunderbird and go to File -> New -> Account.

Select Email account and click Next.

Type your name as you want it to appear on outgoing emails.

Then, type your email address in the field labeled Email Address.

Click Next to continue.

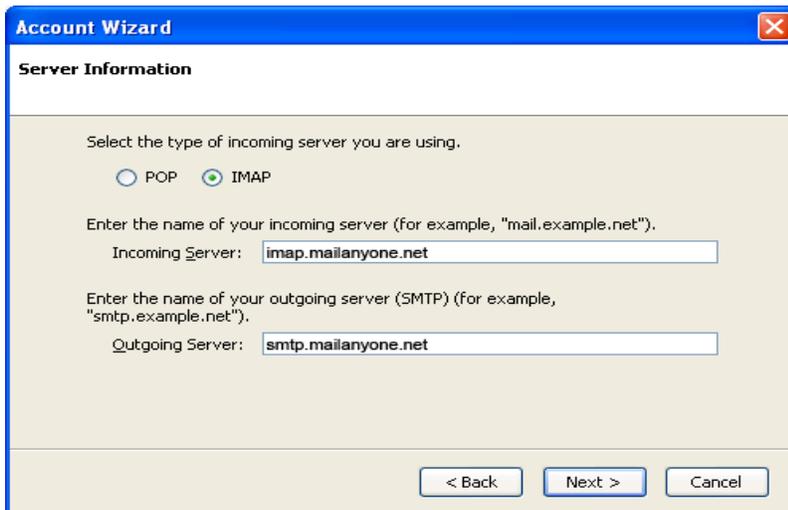

The screenshot shows the 'Account Wizard' window with the 'Identity' tab selected. The window title is 'Account Wizard' and it has a close button in the top right corner. The main content area is titled 'Identity' and contains the following text: 'Each account has an identity, which is the information that identifies you to others when they receive your messages.' Below this, it says: 'Enter the name you would like to appear in the "From" field of your outgoing messages (for example, "John Smith").' There is a text input field labeled 'Your Name:' containing the text 'John Smith'. Below that, it says: 'Enter your email address. This is the address others will use to send email to you (for example, "User@example.net").' There is a text input field labeled 'Email Address:' containing the text 'demo@wizmail.com'. At the bottom of the window, there are three buttons: '< Back', 'Next >', and 'Cancel'.

Select the radio button labeled IMAP.

Enter `imap.wizmail.net` in the field labeled Incoming Server

Enter `smtp.wizmail.net` in the field labeled Outgoing Server

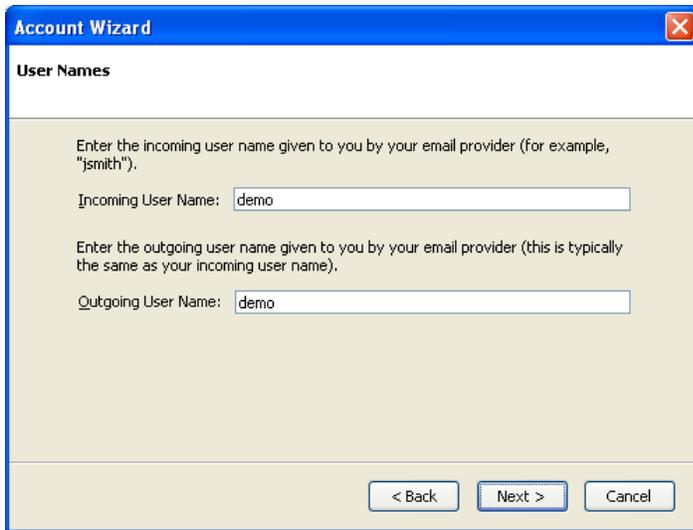

Click Next to continue.

The screenshot shows the 'Account Wizard' window with the 'Server Information' tab selected. The window title is 'Account Wizard' and it has a close button in the top right corner. The main content area is titled 'Server Information' and contains the following text: 'Select the type of incoming server you are using.' Below this, there are two radio buttons: 'POP' and 'IMAP'. The 'IMAP' radio button is selected. Below this, it says: 'Enter the name of your incoming server (for example, "mail.example.net").' There is a text input field labeled 'Incoming Server:' containing the text 'imap.mailanyone.net'. Below that, it says: 'Enter the name of your outgoing server (SMTP) (for example, "smtp.example.net").' There is a text input field labeled 'Outgoing Server:' containing the text 'smtp.mailanyone.net'. At the bottom of the window, there are three buttons: '< Back', 'Next >', and 'Cancel'.

Note: The field Outgoing Server is only visible during the setup of Mozilla Thunderbird's first email account. If you already have an email account set up, you will not see this field.

The next screen, User Names, should already be filled out correctly. Confirm that both fields match your username, and then click Next to continue.

Note: If you have already set up an email account, the Outgoing Server field will not appear.

Click Next on the Account Name page to accept the default Account Name.

Click Finish.

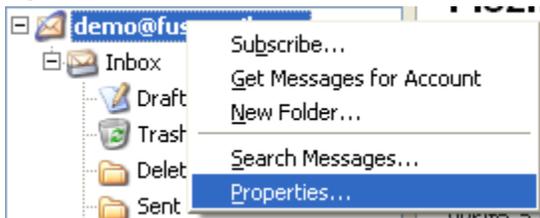

Immediately after clicking finish, you will be prompted for your password.

If you'd like to save your password, make sure Use Password Manager to remember this password is checked before click OK to continue.

Note: You may see a dialog box describing how the Password Manager works. Click OK to continue.

The next step is to configure Mozilla Thunderbird to place messages in the correct folders.

Right click on the new account in the left window pane, and choose Properties.

Below the check box labeled Place a copy in, choose Other.

Click on the drop-down arrow to the right of Other, and choose Inbox. A sub-menu should appear, choose Sent Items.

Below the text Keep message drafts in, choose Other.

Click on the drop-down arrow to the right of Other, and choose Inbox. A sub-menu should appear again, choose Drafts.

The image shows a screenshot of the 'Copies & Folders' settings window in Thunderbird. The window has a blue header with the text 'Copies & Folders'. Below the header, there are two main sections: 'When sending messages, automatically:' and 'Drafts and Templates:'.
In the 'When sending messages, automatically:' section, there is a checked checkbox for 'Place a copy in:'. Below this, there are two radio button options: '"Sent" Folder on:' with a dropdown menu showing 'demo@wizmail.com', and 'Other:' with a dropdown menu showing 'sent Items on demo@wizmail.com'. There is also an unchecked checkbox for 'Bcc these email addresses:' with an empty text field.
In the 'Drafts and Templates:' section, there is a sub-section 'Keep message drafts in:' with two radio button options: '"Drafts" Folder on:' with a dropdown menu showing 'demo@fusemail.com', and 'Other:' with a dropdown menu showing 'Drafts on demo@wizmail.com'. Below this is another sub-section 'Keep message templates in:' with two radio button options: '"Templates" Folder on:' with a dropdown menu showing 'demo@wizmail.com', and 'Other:' with a dropdown menu showing 'demo@fusemail.com'. At the bottom of this section is an unchecked checkbox for 'Show confirmation dialog when messages are saved'.

Thunderbird is now setup to check your WizMailer account. Click OK to return to your inbox.
